

THE FORGOTTEN VICTIMS OF 9-11

RESPONDERS, CLEAN-UP, RESCUE AND RECOVERY WORKERS

Unsung Heroes Helping Heroes, Inc, join with
Suffolk County Legislator
William J. Lindsay in presenting
A Conference Dedicated Toward Identifying Issues And Developing Solutions To Problems Still Faced
By The Unsung Heroes of
The 9-11-01 Attacks

Unsung Heroes Helping Heroes, Inc. is a not-for-profit organization co-founded by responders, rescue and recovery workers of the 9-11 tragedy. Members have first-hand knowledge of the impact to health and emotional well-being resulting from their heroic response to this national disaster.

The conference will focus on the social, medical, economic and legal ramifications still faced by responders, rescue and recovery workers. Panel discussions will be interactive, providing ample time for questions and open discussion. Individual access to physicians, social workers, attorneys and clinicians, familiar with the health problems and legal consequences of medical impairments resulting from work at Ground Zero, will be available throughout the day. Lung function testing will also be available.

Registration is free but space is limited so please pre-register. You can register by phone. Please call The Long Island Occupational and Environmental Health Center, at

631-642-9100 ext 15
