

Join us for the 4th Annual Paramus Freedom Walk

What: Paramus, located less than ten miles from New York City, suffered great losses on September 11, 2001. Even though nine years have passed, the hurt still lingers. The Freedom Walk honors those touched by 9/11...

- ★ a mother or father who lost a child,
- ★ a child who lost a parent,
- ★ the First Responders who lost their lives and those who saved the lives of others,
- ★ soldiers who served to keep us free and those who are serving now.

When: Sunday, September 5, 2010
Registration at 7:00 pm
Walk Begins at 7:30 pm

Where: Paramus Band Shell
116 E. Century Road
Paramus, NJ 07652
behind the Paramus Public Library

How: The success of the Paramus Freedom Walk depends on you!!

- ★ Individuals who walk to remember lives lost on 9/11 and to honor local First Responders and Veterans past and present.
- ★ Encourage your friends to get involved -- recruit a group to walk with you.
- ★ It's a day for people gather together and remember.

Freedom Walk on Military Base

U.S. Army Capt. Jermaine Athill, former army recruiter in Bergen County, will be leading his own Freedom Walk on his base in Iraq. An estimated 250 soldiers will be participating. Excerpts from this remembrance walk are expected to be broadcasted in Paramus, NJ.

THIS YEAR'S FREEDOM WALK IS DEDICATED TO

SGT. CHRIS HRBEK

of Westwood, NJ

*a marine who gave his life
while serving this nation in Afghanistan.
Sgt. Hrbek also served 3 tours in Iraq.*

FREE

Water / Hot Dogs
Cotton Candy / Popcorn

Live Band
T-shirts

For additional information, please contact: Joey Rizzolo, Paramus Freedom Walk Coordinator
(201) 967-7267 freedomrocks1378@aol.com www.Freedomwalkkidsofamerica.com

