

Thank you for your interest in the 9/11 Logler Internship Program. The program is sponsored on a volunteer basis by the New York Chapter of the National Investor Relations Institute, to provide meaningful summer internship opportunities in public and investor relations at New York agencies and corporations.

To qualify for the program, you must be sponsored by a NIRI partner organization and be interested in pursuing a career in public, investor or media relations or corporate communications. In the past, we have placed interns with Ogilvy PR, Burson Marsteller and Becton, Dickenson and Company.

To apply, please email the following information to patricia_dougherty@colpal.com by Friday, February 24, 2006. Please feel free to email any questions you have, or if you need help in filling out your application.

- Resume and cover letter
- Sponsoring organization
- Official copy of your college transcript
- One writing sample chosen from articles you've written for your college newspaper, or a short paper or essay submitted for a class
- A second writing sample, an essay that describes why you're interested in a career in public, investor or media relations or corporate communications

Please note:

All submissions must be electronic, (by e-mail), including transcripts

To learn more about NIRI or investor relations, please visit the NIRI website at www.NIRI.org, and see the New York chapter's website at www.NIRIny.org. NIRIny
9/11 Logler Internship Program