I Miss You

Seems like everywhere I go
In everything I do
There's always something there, there's something there
That takes me back to you

Sometimes you seem so close
Like I could reach out and touch your face
There's always something there, there's something there
Takes me to that place

After all this time, through all these years
Every sleepless night, all the smiles and the tears
Ever since that day, every night I pray
That somehow you might hear me when I say
That I miss you, I miss you

It's been so hard to comprehend
Losing you my love my friend
Always something there, there's something there
Though you're a million miles away
Well this old heart might never mend
But in my darkest hour I can feel you near me again
Always something there, there's something there
Our love's without an end

After all this time, through all these years
Every sleepless night, all the smiles and the tears
Ever since that day, every night I pray
That somehow you might hear me when I say
That I miss you, I miss you
I Miss You
